

Caribbean Electric Utility Services Corporation

Is pleased to announce a 4-day Training Workshop on

MODERN SAFETY MANAGEMENT

- COURSE DATES : March 24 - 27, 2003
- HOURS : 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. & 1:30 - 4:30 p.m.
- VENUE : Training Room, Grenada Electricity Services Ltd.
Dusty Highway, Grand Anse, St. Georges, GRENADA
- TARGET GROUP : Safety and loss control executives, operating managers, first-line supervisors and safety professionals who need first hand knowledge of safety and loss control management systems.
- OBJECTIVE : This course is a comprehensive program appropriate for safety and loss control as well as risk management executives, operating managers, first-line supervisors, and safety professionals who need first hand knowledge of safety and loss control management systems. Modern Safety Management is the most widely attended safety and risk management course of its kind in the world. Based on proven principals of Safety and Risk Management, this course provides participants with the fundamental concepts, techniques and applications for a practical, proactive approach to managing risk and controlling loss.

COURSE CONTENT :

- Managing risk through effective safety management system
- Cause, effects and control of loss
- Planned inspection systems
- Communications
- Rule development
- Managing personal protective equipment systems
- Managing the occupational health control system
- Controlling property damage
- Measuring and monitoring safety
- Promoting safety
- Accident investigation
- Emergency planning and preparedness
- Critical task analysis procedures and observation
- Managing behavioural change
- Examination
- Individual planning worksheet

- BENEFITS : The insights furnished in Modern Safety Management provide significant opportunities for managing costs. Furthermore, they supplement an operational strategy to improve overall management. You'll be able to apply the techniques immediately and see positive results.

Attendees who successfully complete this course are eligible to receive 3.0 Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

- COURSE FEES : Members US $880.00, Non-members US$920 per participant (Fees cover tuition, training material and morning tea-breaks)

- ACCOMMODATION : Coyaba Hotel, Tel: 473-444-1272 Rate: Single Room - US$83.

- PRESENTER : Mr. David W. Wilbanks is the principal Consultant with DNV Training Solutions in the USA and is responsible for providing professional safety management consulting services to industry. He is a Board Certified Safety Professional with over fifteen years of industrial safety, health and loss control experience that includes international consulting, corporate and site safety in the mining and steel industries complemented by two years emergency medical experience. He has an extensive background in safety management program implementation, auditing, training, research and development, project and operations management.

Mr. Gregory Blanchard, Training Coordinator, CARILEC

Tel: 758-452-0140/1

Fax: 758-452-0142

Email: training@carilec.org