Topics:

DAY 1 - 2
1. Governance of Utilities in Turbulent Times
2. The Changing Regulatory Environment for Utilities: What the Corporate Secretary and Legal Officers need to know
4. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act
5. Procurement Integrity and Transparency
7. Creating Legal Frameworks to Deal with Issues of Discrimination and/or Misconduct
8. Changing Times, New Demands: The Evolving Experience of Jamaica's Public Sector Corporate Governance
9. Effective Leadership Skills for Women in Executive Roles
10. Current issues in Corporate Governance
11. Right Sizing Your Board
12. Code of Conduct Training

DAY 3 - 4 "Negotiating a Power Purchase Agreement"
1. Renewable Technologies and Related Considerations
2. Regulatory Framework and Markets for Renewables
3. Funding Sources and Requests for Proposals
4. Project Finance Overview
5. Negotiating and Drafting the PPA
6. Advances in Technology
7. Regulatory and Business Model Developments

Facilitators

Potential facilitators for the Symposium would include:

Mark Kerr, Senior Energy Advisor and Resident Legal Officer, USAID

Janis Riven, Adjunct Professor at John Molson School of Business, Concordia University, where she teaches Corporate Governance. She was the former Vice President, Compliance and Secretary for the Canadian and Global operations of RBC Insurance.

Team Members from Duane Morris, LLP, a large US law firm

For more information about this and other training events contact training@carilec.org